The Clerk of the Court is directed to mail a copy of this Order to the ~~Plaintiff~~ Defendant

Re: Crestwood Technology Group Corp. v. Patrick Dunn
Civil Action No: 17 Civ. 8283 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

This law firm represents the Plaintiff, Crestwood Technology Group Corp. ("CTG"), in the above-referenced matter.

By Order dated November 29, 2017, Your Honor issued an Order prohibiting Defendant Patrick Dunn from contacting or soliciting CTG's customers. Subsequently, CTG presented this Court and Magistrate Smith with evidence that Defendant was violating this Court's order by contacting CTG's customers. Magistrate Smith ordered Defendant to disclose his cell phone so CTG can determine its contents and whether further violations of the Court order existed. Defendant has not complied with any Court order, has not disclosed his cell phone and has not complied with discovery orders. Rather, Defendant appears to have filed for bankruptcy. I received a notice of bankruptcy filing last week. (I have attached it hereto). Despite the apparent bankruptcy filing, Defendant cannot continue to violate this Court's Order and solicit CTG's customers. Further, Defendant must still comply with Magistrate Smith's orders regarding his cell phone. The filing of bankruptcy does not absolve Defendant from the willful violations of the Court's orders. Thus, CTG respectfully requests that this Court hold Defendant in contempt of Court until the Court's orders are complied with.

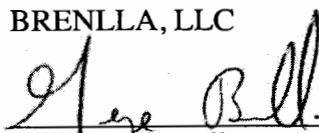

If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the parties.

The Court will hold a hearing on June 6, 2018, at 3:30 Mr. Dunn is to appear in person at this hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

12/15

For the debtors listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtors or the debtors' property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, garnish wages, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtors. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although debtors can ask the court to extend or impose a stay.

The debtors are seeking a discharge. Creditors who assert that the debtors are not entitled to a discharge of any debts or who want to have a particular debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office within the deadlines specified in this notice. (See line 9 for more information.)

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at www.pacer.gov).

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice. Consult a lawyer to determine your rights in this case. Visit <http://www.mdb.uscourts.gov> and click on Filing Without An Attorney for additional resources and information.

To help creditors correctly identify debtors, debtors submit full Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers, which may appear on a version of this notice. However, the full numbers must not appear on any document filed with the court.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case. Do not include more than the last four digits of a Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number in any document, including attachments, that you file with the court.
